

the end of the relevant training period to which a Six-monthly Summative Assessment Report relates.

These reports must be reviewed by the relevant State and Territory or New Zealand Training Accreditation Committee Chair. The relevant State and Territory or New Zealand Training Accreditation Committee Chair will either assess the Six-monthly Summative Assessment as 'Satisfactory' or may refer the Six-monthly Summative Assessment for further consultation and review with the relevant State, Territory and New Zealand TAC (refer to cl. 1.2.3.3 Review of Summative Assessment Reports).

1.2.3.2 Six-monthly Summative Assessment Reports and 'Referred for Review'

The trainee must ensure the assessment is initiated and lodged within the Online Training Platform. Once completed, the Six-monthly Summative Assessment will be assessed by the trainee's Training Supervisor with the outcome recommended as either 'Satisfactory' or 'Referred for Review'.

(where applicable), and to RANZCOG Training Team training@ranzcoq.edu.au . The Chair must also indicate the Committee's decision on the report.

If the Six-monthly Summative Assessment Report assessed by the State and Territory or New Zealand Training Accreditation Committee is deemed by the Committee to be 'Not Satisfactory', the Chair will write to the trainee notifying them of the decision and of the fact that the relevant six-month period will not be credited.

The letter should advise the trainee of the reasons for the Committee's decision and make recommendations for improvements in performance and progress, including appropriate

Approved Assessors

In Australia and New Zealand, assessors for summative assessments must be a RANZCOG-approved IHCA Assessor.

Outside Australia and New Zealand, an assessor for a summative assessment must be a specialist obstetrician/gynaecologist of consultant status who is in active clinical practice in the specialty and has been approved for this purpose by the Chair of the Examination and Assessment Committee.

The choice of an assessor to assess a summative IHCA module should be made using the College list of approved assessors of IHCA modules.

Assessment of Procedural and Surgical Skills (APSS)

The assessment of procedural and surgical skills (APSS) is an evaluation of a trainee's competence to perform obstetric and gynaecological surgical procedures.
